

EMPOWERING LATINO FUTURES'S INTERNATIONAL LATINO BOOK AWARDS

The Largest Awards in the USA Celebrating Achievements in Latino Literature

These New Honorable Mention Books from the International Latino Book Awards Are A True Reflection of the Growing Quality of Books By & About Latinos
By Kirk Whisler

Because of the growing quality of books by and about Latinos Empowering Latino Futures a few years ago added Honorable Mentions to those being honored within the International Latino Book Awards. These honorees in 89 categories of Children and Young Adult Books, Fiction, NonFiction, Poetry, Translation, and Mariposa books are ones that deserve to be recognized, remembered, and read. Special award categories are named after Alma Flor Ada, Isabel Allende, Rudolfo Anaya, Charlie Eriksen, Juan Felipe Herrera, Dolores Huerta, Hank Lacayo, Mimi Lozano, Ambassador Julian Nava, Victor Villaseñor, and Raul Yzaguirre. We now have added an award named after noted author and director Luis Valdez. To learn more about the awards go to www.LatinoBookAwards.org

Three key ways the marketplace for books for, by, and about Latinos is evolving:

1. QUALITY INCREASING. Over the last three decades, we've seen the field of Latino books grow from a few books in most key book categories to where today there's a growing wide variety of books in most categories. With that growth has come awareness across the book industry that books by and about Latinos are a viable industry.

2. 15 MILLION LATINO READERS. A further sign is that there is now a consistent audience for books in both Spanish and English with a sizeable audience of 15.5 million Latino Readers across the United States. These consistent readers represent 34 percent of all Latino adults and have a combined income of $452 billion. The National Latino Reader Study's nationwide survey of 10,640 found that these readers purchase an average of 24.7 books a year, with 42 percent of the books in Spanish, a major increase from a few decades ago when it was much harder to find a wide variety of books in Spanish in the United States.

3. THE AWARD GROWS. This year we had more books in English, Spanish, and Portuguese than ever before. Empowering Latino Futures received a 38% increase in entries over the previous record high. This is another sign of the GREAT quality of books for, by, and about Latinos that are being produced. This year's 239 judges were a tremendous help in this process: Past ILBA winners, professors, librarians, educators, journalists, members of REFORMA and Las Comadres, and people who love and appreciate good books were busy reviewing all the entries.

Since its founding in 1997 Empowering Latino Futures has held 74 Latino Book & Family Festivals around the USA with our Latino Book & Family Festivals; Honored over 3,000 books with the Int'l Latino Book Awards; provided 245,000 books to underserved youth with Education Begins in the Home, which started in 2015; Served 182,500 youth with our National Latino & American Indian Scholarship Directory; and our Latino Books into Movies Awards that has honored 199 books and scripts. This month we will hold our 75th Latino Book & Family Festival at Sacramento City College on September 28, 2024 with Edward James Olmos, Reyna Grande, and Victor Villaseñor as keynotes.

This year's partners include AARP California, Amazon Literary Partnership, Google Transformation Tech, Independent Book Publishers Association, Lantia, Las Comadres, Los Angeles City College, Los Angeles Community College District, MAAC, MiraCosta College, Molina Healthcare, Sacramento City College, Sacramento Progressive Communities, San Diego County, and TrueCare.

Estos Nuevos Libros Mencionados de Honor de los Premios Internacionales de Libros Latinos Son un Verdadero Reflejo de la Creciente Calidad de los Libros Por y Sobre Latinos

Por Kirk Whisler

Debido a la creciente calidad de los libros escritos por y sobre latinos, Empowering Latino Futures agregó hace unos años Menciones Honoríficas a los galardonados en los Premios Internacionales del Libro Latino. Estos homenajeados en 89 categorías de Libros para Niños y Adolescentes, Ficción, No Ficción, Poesía, Traducción y Libros Mariposa son aquellos que merecen ser reconocidos, recordados y leídos. Las categorías de premios especiales llevan el nombre de Alma Flor Ada, Isabel Allende, Rudolfo Anaya, Charlie Eriksen, Juan Felipe Herrera, Dolores Huerta, Hank Lacayo, Mimi Lozano, el Embajador Julian Nava, Victor Villaseñor y Raul Yzaguirre. Ahora hemos agregado un premio nombrado en honor al reconocido autor y director Luis Valdez. Para obtener más información sobre los premios, visite www.LatinoBookAwards.org. Tres formas clave en las que el mercado de libros para, por y sobre latinos está evolucionando:

1. CALIDAD EN AUMENTO. En las últimas tres décadas, hemos visto cómo el campo de los libros latinos ha pasado de tener unos pocos libros en la mayoría de las categorías clave a contar hoy con una creciente y amplia variedad de libros en la mayoría de las categorías. Con ese crecimiento ha surgido una mayor conciencia en la industria editorial de que los libros por y sobre latinos son una industria viable.

2. 15 MILLONES DE LECTORES LATINOS. Otra señal de la evolución es que ahora hay una audiencia consistente para libros en español e inglés, con una audiencia significativa de 15.5 millones de lectores latinos en los Estados Unidos. Estos lectores consistentes representan el 34 por ciento de todos los adultos latinos y tienen un ingreso combinado de 452 mil millones de dólares. La Encuesta Nacional de Lectores Latinos, que abarcó a 10,640 personas, encontró que estos lectores compran un promedio de 24.7 libros al año, siendo el 42 por ciento de esos libros en español, un aumento significativo respecto a hace unas décadas, cuando era mucho más difícil encontrar una amplia variedad de libros en español en los Estados Unidos.

3. LOS PREMIOS CRECEN. Este año tuvimos más libros en inglés, español y portugués que nunca antes. Empowering Latino Futures recibió un aumento del 38% en las inscripciones respecto al récord anterior. Este es otro signo de la EXCELENTE calidad de los libros para, por y sobre latinos que se están produciendo. Los 239 jueces de este año fueron de gran ayuda en este proceso: ganadores anteriores del ILBA, profesores, bibliotecarios, educadores, periodistas, miembros de REFORMA y Las Comadres, y personas que aman y aprecian los buenos libros estuvieron ocupados revisando todas las inscripciones.

Desde su fundación en 1997, Empowering Latino Futures ha realizado 74 Festivales del Libro y la Familia Latino en todo Estados Unidos con nuestros Festivales del Libro y la Familia Latino; ha honrado más de 3,000 libros con los Premios Internacionales del Libro Latino; ha proporcionado 245,000 libros a jóvenes desfavorecidos con Education Begins in the Home, que comenzó en 2015; ha servido a 182,500 jóvenes con nuestro Directorio Nacional de Becas Latinas y Nativas Americanas; y nuestros Premios Latino Books into Movies han honrado 199 libros y guiones. Este mes llevaremos a cabo nuestro 75.º Festival del Libro y la Familia Latino en Sacramento City College el 28 de septiembre de 2024, con Edward James Olmos, Reyna Grande y Victor Villaseñor como oradores principales.

Los socios de este año incluyen AARP California, Amazon Literary Partnership, Google Transformation Tech, Independent Book Publishers Association, Lantia, Las Comadres, Los Angeles City College, Los Angeles Community College District, MAAC, MiraCosta College, Molina Healthcare, Sacramento City College, Sacramento Progressive Communities, San Diego County y TrueCare.

Please Note: These are Honorable Mention books, a separate from the ILBA Award Winning Books. The listing of books is alphabetical, NOT a reflection on the order of the final awards that will be given. After the Publisher of the book is listed we cite the Country of Origin for the author(s) and the DMA or DMAs they currently live in.
